Ocean Institute Halloween Events: Tidepool Terrors, Haunted Brig

Dana Point, CALIF., September 27, 2007 – The Ocean Institute will celebrate Halloween with two spooky events:

Tidepool Terrors: Stories of the Sea, on Sunday, October 28, 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

This Halloween-themed event allows visitors to explore the slimy secrets of the sea. Hear tales from a pirate ghost, watch a fun movie on the big screen, snack on cookies with cider, and trick-or-treat through the aquariums. Don't miss this exciting day to meet and greet creatures of all sorts!

General admission is $6 adults, $4 children (ages 4-12). A child in a Halloween costume will be admitted free with each paid adult.

The Haunted Brig: Mysterious Tales of the High Seas, Saturday, October 27, 7 – 9 p.m.

Ushering in All Hallow's Eve, the crew of the Pilgrim will regale guests with mysterious stories of maritime lore. For ages 8 and up. Cost $10 at the door.

Founded in 1977, the Ocean Institute is a non-profit organization dedicated to ocean preservation through education, setting the standard for educational excellence and serving as a leading resource for universities, museums, teachers and all others seeking to increase their knowledge of the ocean. The Ocean Institute is open to the general public on weekends, 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. Cost: $6 adults, $4 children (ages 4-12), Ocean Institute members free. Unique maritime and ocean-themed items are available in the Chambers Gallery everyday, 9 a.m. – 6 p.m. Institute address: 24200 Dana Point Harbor Dr., Dana Point. Website: www.ocean-institute.org. Phone: (949) 496-2274.
